

7 Reasons to Book Antoinette Oglethorpe as Your Next Speaker

1

She connects with every audience, because she's walked in their shoes.

With 25+ years' experience in corporate leadership, global consulting, and entrepreneurship, Antoinette understands the pressures facing leaders, employees, and HR teams. She brings empathy, insight, and authenticity to every event, whether she's speaking to executives in Geneva, HR professionals in London, or emerging leaders in the UN.

2

She brings a powerful message that drives real change.

Antoinette's signature COMPASS framework gives people the tools and mindset to take ownership of their development and thrive in a fast-changing world of work. Her message resonates deeply – and more importantly, it sticks.

3

She combines inspiration with practical action.

This isn't feel-good fluff. Antoinette delivers memorable stories, meaningful insights, and practical models that audiences can apply immediately. Her sessions spark lightbulb moments – and the motivation to act on them.

4

She makes your job easy.

Organised, professional, and a joy to work with, Antoinette is the kind of speaker event organisers love. She's flexible, responsive, and experienced in both virtual and in-person delivery. She'll show up prepared, on time, and committed to making your event a success.

5

She brings warmth, wisdom and just the right amount of humour.

Antoinette's speaking style is down-to-earth and engaging. She doesn't lecture, she connects. Her natural warmth and subtle humour make serious topics accessible and energising, even for audiences weary of corporate speak.

6

She's trusted by global brands and international organisations.

From the World Bank and World Health Organization to NHS, UNHCR and global tech firms, Antoinette has delivered keynotes and training programmes across sectors and continents. Her impact is backed by client results and glowing testimonials.

7

She lives what she teaches.

Antoinette isn't just a speaker. She's a mentor, coach, and business founder who's built her life around helping people grow. Her story is one of reinvention, values-led decisions, and meaningful impact. When she speaks, people listen because they know it's real.
