

Antoinette Oglethorpe MC Intro

Today, our speaker is a global expert in career development, leadership, and navigating change in the modern workplace.

She's here to help us answer a question that's more urgent than ever: How do we help people thrive in a world where nothing stays the same for long?

You'll walk away with fresh insights, practical tools, and renewed confidence in how to support success – for yourself and those around you.

She has spent over 25 years working with organisations like the World Health Organization, UN Refugee Agency, NHS, and the World Bank.

She is a best-selling author, award-winning coach, and creator of the COMPASS framework – helping people navigate their careers with clarity, ownership and purpose.

Please welcome... Speaker, Author, and Career Development Expert, Antoinette Oglethorpe.
